The Hardy Boys

By Franklin W. Dixon

Gr 3-7

The Hardy Boys, Frank and Joe Hardy, are teenage brothers and amateur detectives. They live in the city of Bayport on Barmet Bay with their father, detective Fenton Hardy; their mother, Laura Hardy; and their Aunt Gertrude. The brothers attend high school in Bayport, where they are in the same grade, but school is rarely mentioned in the books and never hinders their solving of mysteries. In the older stories, the Boys' mysteries are often linked to their father's confidential cases. He sometimes requests their assistance, while at other times they stumble upon relevant villains and incidents.

There are 190 books in this series!

The Hardy Boys: Undercover Brothers

By Franklin W. Dixon

Gr 3-7

The Undercover Brothers is about two teenage brother detectives, Frank and Joe Hardy, who are the sons of world-famous PI Fenton Hardy. Although there are many similarities in this series to previous Hardy Boys series, there are also many changes to modernize the series.

Then one day, Diana reaches into the pocket of a fancy coat and finds an invitation to a glittering gala in New York City. Since the coat's owner is out of town, Diana gets a wild idea. With the help of some savvy friends, one glamorous dress, and a lot of improvising, Diana pretends to be someone she's not, and makes it into the party! Will she be discovered, or will her disguise come off without a hitch?

There are 6 books in this series.

The Zack Files

By Dan Greenburg

Gr 3-5

Zack is a normal 10-year-old boy with a knack for getting into weird situations. The stories have a whacked-out, off-the-wall humor that is reminiscent of the work of Daniel Pinkwater. At the same time, they neatly poke fun at the conventions of popular horror series. Kids will find some of the episodes tremendously funny. The books are short without looking babyish and would appeal to reluctant readers as well as those with a taste for oddball humor!

There are 30 books in this series.
