Adult Programs this Summer

Adults are invited to join in on the fun with their own Summer Reading Program called “Water Your Mind: Read.” Adults will be asked to take a reading log to track their reading over the summer. When you take a log you will get a ticket to be entered into our raffle. Each week a name will be drawn to win a “Water Your Mind” prize which includes a garden pot shaped mug, a $25 gift certificate to Innisfree Book Shop and a few other goodies. Thank you to the Friends of the Library for sponsoring these prizes!

In addition we will have many programs to “water your mind” over the summer. Tuesday, July 6 Wild Bird Depot of Gilford will be here to talk to us about feeding and watering our backyard birds and whether or not we should provide places for nesting. Wednesday, July 14 at 10:00AM expert quilter Ginger Stevenson will be here to discuss the history of quilting and quilting basics including: tools, quilting styles, fabric (how to cut it, pick it, etc.) She will also give advice on where to go to learn how to quilt.

Please join us for our author luncheon on Thursday, July 22 at 11:00AM. Cast your net wide for this father and son team of anglers who have collaborated to write "Freshwater Fish of the Northeast" by Matt Patterson and illustrated by his son David. Matt and David wish to share their passion for fishing and nature. Books will be available for purchase and the authors will sign. After a presentation by the authors we will be serving pizza and salad. The authors will be dining with us and will be available for questions and answers. Please be sure to indicate pepperoni or cheese pizza when you register.

Introduction to Homeopathy will be on Wednesday August 4 at 10:30AM. Are you looking for alternative ways to get or stay healthy? Have you always wanted to look into naturopathic medicine but were unsure of how to begin? Please join naturopathic doctor Kathryn Cranford, ND, NHCM for a discussion on this topic.

Mystery Book Group - Thursday, July 8-10:30-12:00PM - Please join us as we discuss Three Weeks to Say Goodbye by C.J. Box. Refreshments will be served. Pick up your copy at the main desk. After years of trying to have a baby, Jack and Melissa McGuane’s dream has come true with the adoption of their daughter Angelina. But nine months after bringing her home, they receive a devastating phone call from the adoption agency - Angelina’s birth father, a teenager, never signed away his parental rights and he wants her back. Worse, his father, a powerful Denver judge, wants him to own up to this responsibility and will use every advantage his position of power affords him to make sure it happens. When Jack and Melissa attempt to handle the situation rationally by meeting face to face with the father and son, it is immediately apparent that there’s something sinister about both of them and that love for Angelina is not the motivation for their actions.

Brown Bag Book Group - Thursday, July 29 at noon - Please bring your brown bag lunch. Dessert and refreshments will be served. This month we are discussing The Interpretation of Murder by Jed Rubenfeld. In 1909, Drs. Freud and Jung visit Manhattan. They no sooner arrive when a young socialite is murdered, followed by another attempted murder, bearing the same characteristics. In the second case, the victim lives. She has lost her voice and cannot remember anything. The young doctor, Stratham Younger, who has invited Freud to speak at his University, soon involves Dr. Freud in the case. Freud, saying that Nora’s case will require a time commitment that he does not have, turns her over to Younger. That is just one of the myriad plot lines in the novel, all of which are intricate, interesting and plausible. All it takes for all of the incidents to be true is a great deal of bad will—and it is abundant here!

Getting Started in Genealogy is on August 19 at 6:30PM. Please join us as we look at ways to get started investigating your roots. We will look at the three library genealogy databases: Ancestry.com, HeritageQuest and New England Ancestors and learn how to look up Vital Records, Censuses, Passenger Lists, Military Records and much more. Forms will be handed out that will show you how to keep track of your research. For beginners and those who have always wanted to try genealogy but weren’t sure how to start.

Over the summer we will continue our two book groups: Mystery Lovers, second Thursday of each month at 10:30 and Brown Bag Book Group last Thursday of each month at noon. In addition we will be showing movie matinees with popcorn and soda the last Friday of every month at 1:00PM. The Genealogy Club continues on Fridays June 4, July 9 and August 6 at 4:00PM. Learn about the Mayflower Society and NH Vital Records on June 4. Our computer classes continue over the summer including a Digital Photography Class on Tuesday July 20 and 27 from 7:00-9:00PM and various classes on Wednesdays at 2:00 throughout the summer.
