Meredith Public Library
91 Main Street
Meredith, NH 03253

Dear Friends,

I regret that I cannot be with you today, but I join you in celebrating the grand opening of the new Meredith Public Library.

In so many ways, libraries are the cornerstone of our communities. They offer social connection, internet access, and countless resources from books to DVDs to local archives, all helping create a wealth of knowledge for all those who visit. The Meredith Public Library also offers clubs focused on genealogy and computers, as well as services and resources for community members who experience disabilities.

This new space will provide the Meredith community and surrounding areas with increased opportunity to gather and take advantage of the many programs and services the library has to offer. I am grateful to the skilled staff who make these services and this space available to ensure that community members have the resources they need to thrive.

Thank you to everyone here today and to everyone involved in making this grand opening possible.

With every good wish,

Margaret Wood Hassan

Dear Friends,

I wish I could be with you in person as you open the doors to the new Meredith Public Library. Please know that I join in spirit as library patrons and supporters come together to celebrate this wonderful new space. Thank you to the Friends of Meredith Library and library staff for all you do to continue the number of services offered by the facility. Also, thank you to everyone involved in the design, construction and funding of the thoughtful renovations to this historic building.

I have always believed that a community library is important and should be a door to new opportunities to educate, inform and relax. A library has many things to offer and connects even the smallest of towns to a much larger world of discovery and wonder. The books, multimedia, technology and study and meeting spaces create opportunities for citizens to open their eyes to new ideas. This is certainly the case with this library, a resource that has served residents of Meredith since 1901.

In your new facility, you’ll be able to accommodate the community’s growing interest in your offerings. You’ll have more room for bookshelves and reading spaces. You’ll be able to hold workshops in a larger conference room. All of this will help you fulfill your community-driven vision and further the legacy of this library.

I wish you all the best as you continue your good work.

Sincerely,

Jeanne Shaheen
