From the President
Diane Gravel

I hope you’ve found time to dig into some of those family mysteries over the past few months. Genealogical research has been a welcome diversion for many of us as we make our way through this pandemic. Even now, it’s an exciting time to be a member of NHSOG!

First of all, kudos to our outstanding Publications Committee (Rob Weir, Chair; Margaret Hodges; and Erin Apostolos) and NH Record Editor (Ruth Craig)! Margaret and Erin serve double duty as NH Record Associate Editor and Newsletter Editor, respectively. The digital version of our last issue offered a brand new experience, with links to our new YouTube Channel, where you’ll find videos on a number of topics, including interviews with our authors. Check it out. It’s fascinating! And watch for the next issue of the journal in the near future.

I hope you’ve taken the time to create your profile on the new website. Membership Chair Alex Auty has worked tirelessly with the web designer and our members to make the transition to online registration go as smoothly as possible. It has certainly presented some challenges, and we appreciate your patience!

Most of us already appreciated the value of online research, but I doubt many of us ever anticipated attending a genealogy conference online. If you didn’t join us for NHSOG’s first virtual conference last September, you missed a wonderful experience! In addition to an excellent speaker, Jane Wilcox, we enjoyed great door prizes and a lot of open-chat time for questions and casual conversation. Cyndi Ingle (of the renowned Cyndi’s List of Genealogy Sites on the Internet) served as our host and kept the discussion going. I particularly enjoyed seeing everyone’s faces, something that is not always possible in an in-person meeting.

Don’t miss our Virtual Spring Conference on 8 May 2021, when Cyndi joins us as our featured speaker. It promises to be another great day of learning and keeping in touch with our genealogy friends. Keep checking the website at https://www.nhsog.org/ for further details as we get closer to the date.

In the meantime, happy hunting! Stay safe, be well, and I hope to “see” you soon!

Diane

News from the Publications Committee

The next issue (Vol. 33, No. 1) of the New Hampshire Genealogical Record is undergoing final edits and layout. We hope to get it to the printer in the next couple of weeks. It will feature two articles on two Wallis/Wallace families.

We are also pleased to announce that we have brought back into print William Edgar Wentworth’s compilation, Vital Records 1790-1829 from Dover, New Hampshire’s First Newspaper. This paperback reprint edition, Number 6 in the series of NSHOG Special Publications, is now available in paperback from Amazon and Barnes & Nobles.

As always, we encourage and welcome article submissions from genealogists working on New Hampshire families. Information on the kinds of material we’re looking for, the standards we ask authors to follow, and instructions for how to submit, can be found on our website here https://www.nhsog.org/the-nh-record.

Thank you to Our Donors!

Volunteers Needed

We still need volunteers to help with the Virtual New England Regional Genealogical Conference (NERGC), April 1 - May 31, 2021. You’ll learn everything you need to know in a one-hour training session. Join in the fun while you learn and get to know other volunteers! If you can help, contact Diane Gravel at president@nhsog.org.

New Hampshire Libraries Give Access to Thousands of eMagazines

If you have a library card in New Hampshire, be sure to visit the NH Downloadable Books Consortium to peruse thousands of eMagazines that can be downloaded at no cost including Family Tree, Family Tree UK, History Scotland, American History, Civil War Times, Who Do You Think You Are, Traces, and so many more, including international and foreign language titles. These titles can be downloaded onto your computer directly or onto one of your devices using the Libby app. Search your device’s app store for “Libby”. You will need your library card number to access the database. Call or email your local NH library for more information. Special access to all of these titles is currently only available until July, so check them out while you can.
Memorials
It is with sadness that we report the death of two NHSOG Life Members.

Noreen (Cook) Pramberg passed away on November 27, 2020. She was the author of several compiled genealogies of early Newton, Mass. residents, and a volume of early vital records for Newton, N.H.

Barbara (Bullock) Jones passed away December 25, 2020. Barbara participated actively in genealogy and historical societies and wrote a historical column for The Walpole Gazette (NH). In 1985, she was recognized as one of New Hampshire's Outstanding Volunteers.
