Thursday November 13, 10:30-12:00-. Please join us as we read Archer Mayor's Open Season. Major's fine first novel features Joe Gunther, a police lieutenant in Brattleboro, Vt., who is as likable and sensitive a hero as Robert B. Parker's Spenser, but who possesses a fresh, intelligent voice all his own. A wealthy young man seeking his stolen dog is killed by a frightened widow who has been set up to expect an intruder; a young woman is assaulted by a ski-masked man with a false tattoo. Gunther connects the victims to their service as jurors on a trial three years before, in which a Vietnam veteran was quickly convicted of murdering a young woman. Pressured not to stir old fires by police and political figures alike, Gunther is determined to pursue the case when an attempt is made on his own life by the man in the ski mask.

*Thursday Evening Book Group-*The group will meet again after the holidays on Thursday, January 29 from 7-8:30PM. Time and Again by Jack Finney.
Simon Morley moves into the Dakota apartments and returns to the year 1882 under hypnosis, where he falls in love.

Library Mission Statement

Meredith Public Library is the informational, educational, and cultural heart of the Meredith community. The library is a dependable source of reliable information and of challenging ideas that enlighten and enrich, and of materials in many formats that enhance leisure time and expand knowledge of current events. The library encourages the love of reading and the joy of learning, and offers the assistance people need to find, evaluate, and use electronic and print information resources that help them live successful and rewarding lives.

Are You Talented?

Do you have a special skill such as knitting, scrapbooking or model train building you'd be willing to share with others at the library? Are you an artist looking for a place to display your work? If so please contact the library. If displaying artwork please ask for Karen Henchey. If you would like to do a program at the library please contact Erin Apostolos.

Artists at the Library

This month please be sure to stop by the glass case display in non-fiction to view N-Joyment Photos by Marjorie Newcomb. Marjorie has beautiful photo cards on display of New Hampshire sites and festive scenes.

In the media room please take some time to view the mixed media display of Lynn Montana. Lynn has brought in a lot of her father's work for all to see.

Thank you to both artists for their time and creativity.

Coffee Bean Tree

Next time you're visiting the library take a moment and look at our coffee bean tree. The tree was a gift from Mr. Nichiporuk. The tree is in our non-fiction room and is full of coffee bean berries. Earlier this year the tree was pollinated with a Q-tip and to our amazement it is loaded with berries. Once ripe, coffee berries are picked, processed, and dried. The seeds are then roasted, undergoing several physical and chemical changes. They are roasted to varying degrees, depending on the desired flavor. They are then ground and brewed to create coffee.

Donations

If you're fall cleaning and are wondering what to do with your extra books, DVDs, videocassettes, or audio books please consider donating them to the library. All items published less than five years ago except for textbooks, magazines and encyclopedia sets will be accepted. What the library doesn't add to the collection will be sold at the next book sale. Thank you! In addition if you have any old clothes or costumes please think about donating them for our costume room.
